

Industry Partners

If you're a human resource consultant, outplacement/career counselor, executive coach, executive recruiter or psychologist looking to incorporate the best tools into your practice, we'd like to talk to you. Our industry partner program is designed to assist HR professionals who regularly assess people as part of the services offered to their clients.

Agent Licensing

We're looking for agents to distribute our services across North America and internationally. This is a great opportunity for individuals or agencies who share our passion for helping organizations make better people decisions. If you currently offer similar or related services, and are looking for a best-of-breed product to complement your current offerings, please give us a call. Qualified agents will receive attractive commissions.
